

Cheap Nursing CEUs

Sleep Disorders

1. The healthcare provider is educating a patient on their treatment plan for insomnia. What would the healthcare provider include as an effective treatment option?

- A. Positive airway pressure while sleeping
 - B. Cognitive behavior therapy
 - C. Pneumatic pressure therapy
 - D. Increase caffeine intake
-

2. What would indicate to the healthcare provider that a patient may be suffering from insomnia?

- A. Waking up with feelings of fear and anxiety
 - B. Snoring while asleep
 - C. Sleepwalking
 - D. Excessive daytime sleepiness
-

3. The healthcare provider is assessing an 8-year-old patient who reports trouble sleeping. Which of the following would indicate to the healthcare provider that the patient has parasomnia?

- A. Bedwetting while asleep
 - B. Cataplexy
 - C. Snoring while asleep
 - D. Headache when waking up
-

4. At what stage in the sleep cycle do night terrors typically occur?

- A. When falling asleep
 - B. Non-rapid eye movement (REM)
 - C. Rapid eye movement (REM)
 - D. When waking up
-

5. A patient recently diagnosed with obstructive sleep apnea asks the healthcare provider “What caused my diagnosis?” Which of the following would the healthcare provider identify as a risk factor for obstructive sleep apnea?

- A. Obesity
- B. Recent head injury

- C. Fever
 - D. Stress
-

6. The healthcare provider is providing education to a patient with obstructive sleep apnea. What statement would the healthcare provider use to explain positive airway pressure to the patient?

- A. "A surgical procedure to remove tonsils and adenoids to open up the airway."
 - B. "A inflatable device that compresses the legs to improve stimulation."
 - C. "A surgical procedure that reduces soft tissue around the airway."
 - D. "A machine forcibly pushes air into the airway during sleep to keep the airway open."
-

7. What is a risk factor for narcolepsy?

- A. High levels of hypocretin
 - B. Recent head injury
 - C. Obesity
 - D. Pregnancy
-

8. A patient recently diagnosed with narcolepsy asks the healthcare provider "How do I cure my narcolepsy?" What statement would the healthcare provider respond with?

- A. "The right medications will cure narcolepsy."
 - B. "Napping whenever you feel tired will help your symptoms."
 - C. "There is no cure, but medications and lifestyle changes can help manage symptoms."
 - D. "Positive airway pressure while sleeping will cure narcolepsy."
-

9. Which of the following is a diagnostic criteria for restless legs syndrome?

- A. The uncomfortable sensation is relieved by activity
 - B. The uncomfortable sensation occurs when waking up
 - C. The uncomfortable sensation is relieved by rest
 - D. The uncomfortable sensation can be attributed to medication side effects
-

10. The healthcare provider is educating a patient on their treatment plan for restless legs syndrome. What would the healthcare provider include as an effective treatment option?

- A. Cognitive behavior therapy
 - B. Decrease daily exercise
 - C. Scheduled naps during the day
 - D. Pneumatic pressure therapy
-

Copyright © 2024 Cheap Nursing CEUs

Visit us at <https://www.cheapnursingceus.com>